intion Champions Play at Wechawken,

The managers of the Monitor baseball grounds at Wee-hawken could undoubtedly add to the attractiveness of that resort by providing as inclined railway or balloons by means of which visitors could be conveyed to the top of the mountain on which the diamond is laid out. The Socious were early on the grounds, and sat in a group on the grass waiting for the Baltimores to appear upon the scene. The You der Horst team had missed a train and did not arrive until nearly 5 o'clock. Meanwhile the crowd expressed its views very emphatically.
Occasionally the Socious get up on the field and indulged in a little light practice for the purpose of keepling the crowd quiet. Big Dan Krouthers, the plicherslayer of Wappinger's Falls, and Hardie Richardson, the dynamic bateman of Utica, divided the honors. When at last the Baltimores Kickhams Too Much for the Emmetts. When the Farley Emmetts of Jersey City faced the Kickham football team of Harlem yesterday afternoon, at Erastiha, the weather was much cooler than it had been earlier in the day, when the Irish-Americans and the Stars of Erin played. Referee T. Lonergan put the ball in play at 4:30 o'clock. The Kickhams started in to work for goals right away, and from the beginning of the game to the end they played brilliantly. The of the game to the end they played brilliantly. The Emmetts did not cover snowle of the field, but massed together so much that when the ball was kicked beyond the acrimmare line a kickham player usually had the whole field to himself. Mits Kolly of the Emmetts played a strong game, his dribbling being a feature.

Iliggins also blocked, batted, and kicked well, and O'Hey at good deserves much credit. Time and again he kept the powerful Kickhams from securing goods. At the end of the first half the Kickhams bad 6 goods and 5 points to 1 point for the Emmetts. In the second half the Jersyltes, aithough kept continually playing on the defensive, braced up and made some near plays. The final score was kickhams, 5 goods, 11 points; Emmetts, 1 point. The teams

LORD HAWKE, WEGREET YOU

ENGLISH CRICKETERS READY TO ATTACK THE NEW YORKERS.

vided, refreshment tents have been erected, and it is noted with satisfaction that the Staten Island Club is doing everything in its power to help the League and make the game a big success. Play will start each day at 11 o'clock, and boats will run every half, hour from the Battery to Ht. George, where trains will be in waiting to finish the journey to Livingston. Owing to the early darkness stumps will be drawn at 5 o'clock, and as many specials as necessary will carry the crowd back to New York.

Crace, and a Fine Wicket is Assured.

After a most enjoyable time in Philadelphia, Lord Hawke's team of English cricketers will make their bow to a New York audience today. At their special request the game which was to be played with the Boston Athletic Association on Friday and Saturday has been put off to the first three days of next week, and the arrangement will afford the visitors an opportunity of playing the Baltimore fifteen on Oct. 9 and 10.

The following sixteen players have been selected to represent New York by the Metropolitian League: R. O. Davies, captain: F. J. Prendergast and Tyers of the Manhattan Club, C. J. Annand of Staten Island, J. Rose and C. H. Ellis of the New Jersey A. C., A. Brown and A. S. Durrant of the Brooklyn Club, J. E. Bob-erts of the Fort Hamilton Club, H. Manley and E. Snelgrove of the Kings County Club. S. W. Richardson and E. H. Moeran of the Berkeley Club, J. W. Smallwood and Mattock of Paterson, and D.-A. Lindsay of Harlem. The latter, however, found at the last moment that he could not play, and the vacancy has not yet been filled.

J. H. J. HORMERY.

The team is not a strong one, or the best New York could do, for business and other arrangements have prevented several of the best players in the city from taking part. The absence of J. L. Pool and S. H. Barton of the Staten Island Club is to be regretted, while M. R. Cobb is in Europe and H. E. Jackson also out of the city. The team will make a good fight, however. For batting talent J. Rose, R. O. however. For batting talent J. 1898, R. C. Davies, Tyers, J. E. Roberts, A. Brown, and J. W. Smallwood should be relied upon to make runs. Among the bowlers those from whom the best work is to be expected are C. H. Ellis. Tyers, Mattock, and possibly A. Brown and S. W. Richardson. The bowling is, considering the great strength of the opposing eleven, the weakest spot on the team.

Every arrangement has been made for the comfort of the spectators at Livingston. Increased seating secommodation has been pro-

been selected from one club. The match will be played on the Longwood grounds on Oct. 12. 13, and 14. The Boston team will be George Wright, Lott Mansfield, R. Cracknell, C. I. Blxby, J., W. Dutton, Howard McNutt, T. Pettitt, S. Wright, L. Haughton, Graham Haughton, and Chambers, professional. The other clubs of Boston do not appreciate being left out in the cold. They maintain that the match would have been much more interesting with a representative team of all Boston or even all Massachusetts, and think it sheer audacity on the part of the Longwood Club to attempt what even the Germantowns of Philadelphia did not do. The team would certainly be strengthened by the addition of Fairburn and Comber of Lowell, J. Smith of the Mystics, and Burgess of Fall River, while Graham Haughton, J. W. Dutton, S. Wright, and Charles Bixby hardly desorve a place on such an eleven. From Boston the Englishmen will go West, where games will probably be played with the Chicago, Detroit, and Pittsburgh clubs.

Lord Hawke and his team arrived over the Pennsylvania Railroad at Jersey City yesterday at 5% o'clock P. M. Acommittee of the Metropolitan District Cricket League consisting of W. H. Rutty, Henry Martin, D. A. Munro, E. W. Badler, and Clifford G. Turner were on hand to greet his lordship, and the party were at once taken to the new Imperial Hotel. In the evening the cricketers dined at the Manhattan Club as the guests of Mr. Rutty. All the team have nothing but praise for the generous hospitality of Philadelphia, but at the same time they have been anxious to visit the metropolis.

BROOKLYN CHESSMEN OBJECT. They Will Play the Manhattane Under the

It can truthfully be said that there is greatly increased interest in chess. The publo have been drawn toward the experts of the game. The publicity given to the two games played by cable between William Steinitz in lew York and Mr. Tschigorin in St. Petersburg cannot be estimated. The moves as they appeared were printed in THE Sun with diagrams that would attract the eyes of non-players as well as experts. The match between Steinitz and Gunsberg was the cause of much comment that could not be less comment that could r han favorable in increasing the ranks of chess players. The following remarks were made by Dr. Broughton, Jr., Secretary of the Brooklyn C. C., in his report, read to the members of the club on Saturday evening:

heous performances, has aroused a desire to compare the strength of the clab against other chess societies.

A challenge from the City Club to play a team match in January next was readily accepted, but the sentiment of the club was to go for higher game. Two years ago the Brooklyn Chess Club in a team match, twelve players a side, by a score of 0.5 to 17%. The Brooklynites believe themselves entitled to a return match, exactly under the same conditions as the first one played. The Manhattans, however, declined to play unless the number of players should be increased to at least fifteen a side. This brought forth an animated discussion, and finally the following resolution was passed:

Wagner, The last team match between the Brooklyn

cussion, and finally the following resolution was passed:

Wheren, The last team match between the Brooklyn and Manhattan Chees Clube was played between teams of twelve players as ide, which match was decisively won by the Manhattan Chees Club has again challenged the Manhattan Chees Club has before; and Wheren. The Tournament Committee of the Manhattan Chees Club has demanded an increase of affects a condition of this return and the said committee insists properly the control of the return and the said committee insists properly. The control of the return and the said committee insists properly the control of the return and the said committee insists properly the control of the return and the said committee insists properly the said the said committee insists properly the said the said committee insists of players are abefore.

Reselved, That any attempt to increase the number of players over the number of the previous teams, meets our decided objection and as an invasion of our right to fair play in the matter of a second match.

The club subsequently realected the follow-

Tair play in the matter of a second match.

The club subsequently redected the following officers: President, Charles A. Gilberg; Recretary, Dr. L. D. Broughton, Jr.; Treasurer, William Duval. The other officers are: First Vice-President, Dr. William Ottersan; Second Vice-President, W. F. Enc; Board of Directors, F. Rose, D. J. Finlay, Robert Colwell, Ed Olly, E. B. Gilley, J. D. Elwell.

The gallery was packed. Among some of the visitors were Dr. Neff, Mr. Potter, and others of the Philadelphia Racques Cinb, Robert Carr, Alexander Flood, Charles McGonigie, James Kelly, R. Kligstit, F. Hisgrina, Joseph Plood, and P. Daly of the Richmond Handbail Club. There were quite a number of games played, of which Major Carmody participated in twelve and Tom Lynam in eleven. The special attraction, and which aroused the enthusiasm of the game from start to finish, was a bout between Dr. Smith and Charles Boyle against Phil Casey and Major Carmody. It was a pretty contest, in which Champion Casey made some wonderful plays. The score:

NEW YORKERS ENJOYING PERFECT WEATHER FOR RACING.

St. Florian's Victory on Saturday was Popular-Bermuda Highly Thought of by the Public Something About the Dam of Bermude and Dagonet-Berean was a Cheap Horse at 83,900 The Programme for this Week-The Baltimore Meeting-Saratoga Stakes-Entries for To-day at Jerome Park

Nobody ever saw more perfect weather for racing than New Yorkers have enjoyed for the past month, and at present there is no indica-tion of a change, yesterday being as balmy as June, with a sky as blue and sunny as

The racing at Jerome and Morris parks last reck drew large crowds, and the turt seems to be as prosperous as when the first-class tracks opened their gates last spring. The sport at Morris Park on Saturday was first class in every respect, and the attend-ance was the most brilliant that has put in an appearance since Futurity Day at Sheepshead Bay. The success of St. Florain was popular, as the big chestnut colt has been more or less of a public idol, and has cost his backers a great deal of money, many persons losing very heavily on him when His Highness and other clinkers got home in front of Mr. Morris' champion. As a matter of fact, St. Florian is a remarkable colt to stand the wear and tear of such a campaign as Wyndham Walden has subjected him to. He began racing at Gravesend last spring, and up to date has started no fewer than twenty-one times. His terrible fall at Sheepshead Bay was enough to send many a two-year-old to horse heaven, but Walden had St. Florian racing again in short order, although he was suffering from an abcess in the head. and he has kept him going pretty steadily ever since. A colt of extraordinary speed, if given half a chance he should make a phenomenal sprinter next year. Bermuda' rictory was popular, too, every lover of a game thoroughbred having a strong liking for Mc-Clelland's sterling colt, who is undoubtedly top of the three-year-old tree with Potomac and La Tosca out of the way. It would not be surprising to find Bermuda in the stable of some of our millionaire turfmen next year, as Bermuda and Dagonet, as the public know very well, are half brothers, both being out of the nine-year-old mare Fair Lady. Fair Lady sold for $4,000 at the recent disposal sale of the Elmendorf stud in Kentucky, and such a elever horseman as J. W. Rogers pronounced her one of the bargains of the year. wednesday's programme will be brightened by the Fashion Stakes for two-year-old fillies at six furiongs. Thursday's programme will be run off over the Morris Park course, the Mount Vernon Stakes for two-year-olds at six furiongs, and the Country Club Handicap at one mile and a furiong for all ages, being down for decision. On Friday Jerome will be the scene of activity, the Laddie Stakes for two-year-olds being the feature for that day. On Saturday the crowd will wond its way to Morris Park, where the Nursery Stakes for two-year-olds at six furiongs, and the Hickory Stakes for three-year-olds at one mile and a half, will be decided.

These are among the very richest events of the year, and a great many capdidates are receiving a special preparation for them. York-ville Belie gets in the Nursery without a penalty, and it is needless to look beyond this great filly for the winner. The Hickory Stakes will be a much opener contest. Strathmeath, Reckon, Russell. Picknicker, Rey del Rey, Homer, Montana, Sallie McClelland, and Kildeer are eligible to start.

Secretary Hugh McIntyre is receiving numerous inquiries concerning the coming meeting of the Baltimore Jockey Club, which will open on Oct. 10. Several hundred head of horses will be on the grounds, and races between the tip-toppers in training have been arranged. Everything indicates a most successful meeting.

Samuel Whitchead is to be Secretary of the Saratoga Racing Association. He announces that entries for the Saratoga Stakes for two-year-olds, and the Kennucky Stakes for two-year-olds. club, and he makes public the programme for the first week of the fall meeting at Guttenburg.

The programme for Jerome Park to-day is highly interesting. Some very fast sprinters are named to start in the opening dash at six furiongs. The crack two-year-olds Leonawoll and Ludwig should both run well, but Autocrat is not out of it, by any means. The two-year-old Lamplighter is among those named to start in the second race at a mile, and the horse that beats him will come near getting the coin. Livonia and Cracksman should both run well.

Kitty T. and Lizzle may do to support in the third event at a mile. Dagonet, with 113 pounds on his back, looks invincible for the Champagne Stakes. St. Florian having 118 pounds up. Neither St. Florian for Dagonet are fond of a distance though, and Azra, who carries but 108 pounds, undoubtedly is. The outcome of the contest may be a surprise, but Dagonet will carry the dollars of the faithful. So many entries were received for the fifth race that it will surely be divided. If Airplant is worth $4 he should win the race with only 00 pounds up. St. Paneras may run second. Busteed and Civil Bervice should do in the last. The following is the programme in detail:

First Race—Welter-weight handicap sweepstakes, for all ages, at $30 each, or only $5 if declared, with $1,000 tall:

THE HORSE AND CARRIAGE TRADE. Lots of Activity in Both Industries These Bright Bays,

New Yorkers never had better weather for driving than at present, and, as a conse-quence, the horse market is brisk, with a demand for matched pairs of carriage horses, roadsters, and saddle horses with all the gaits. Messra. Van Tassell & Kearney disposed of a great many stylish carriage, saddle, and driving horses during the past week, the consignments from Mr. John H. Shults's Parkville Farm being eagerly sought after. The regular Tuesday and Friday sales conducted by this firm are very largely attended.

The American Horse Exchange (Limited) announce that their fifth grand fall sale will commence on Wednesday. Oct. 21, at 11 o'clock. Horses, carriages, and harness, consigned by well-known New York gentlemen, will be offered. In the collection will be found matched pairs of seasoned and highly trained coach and phaeton horses, single harness and fast road horses, saddle horses with good mouths and manners, high-stepping cobs, and children's ponies.

To insure insertion in the advance catalogue which will be mailed to the principal horse owners in the district, entries should reach the Horse Exchange on or before Oct. 14. Horses and carriages will be met at railroad depot or pier on receipt of instructions to that effect. Commencing with the present season, the commission for selling horses and car-

An imported English pony of capital manners, 8 years old and a perfect beauty, is offered by importer, box 109. Sun office, for $200. This pony is fast under saddle or in harness, and should be a bargain at the price stated.

The touch of cool weather of last week gave an increased impetus to the fall and winter carriage trade, and many prospective customers began to look around for the new styles. The carriages for the coming season differ but little from last year, although a few improvements and small changes in style may be noticed in some cases.

Flandrau & Co. of 372-374-376 Broome street and Broadway and Fifty-first street have a superb line of vehicles in both of their large stores. Their broughams are models of beauty and fine workmanship in the carriage maker's art. All the varieties will be found, including easy-riding physician's broughams, the extension front. O spring and light one-horse broughams, victorias, cabriolets, rockaways, landaus, and scores of other turnouts are always kept in stock, and purchasers will find the prices extremely reasonable for first-class work.

Van Tassell & Rearney of 130 and 132 East Thirteenth street have their enormous ware-rooms completely filled with handsome vehicles in all styles and varieties. The customer will be taken through floor after floor stocked with hundreds of fine turnouts, exquisitely finished, and made to insure ease and comfort even while rattling over the hard stone streets of our city. Broughams, coaches, coupés, landaus, cabiolets, &c., will always be found at extremely low rates. The harness room is continually stocked with the latest styles, and the high-grade domestic and imported harness are always on hand.

The Racine Wagon and Carriage Company of £151-153 Bouth Fifth avonue is one of the best places in the city for the man to visit who want very low prices.
The H. H. Baboock Company of 408, 408, 410, and 412 Broome street are builders of fine carriages of every description. In point of beauty and stability their vehicles stand as near perfection as it is possible to reach. Their road wagons are particularly worthy of inspection.

East Thirty-first street have a complete and choice stock of victorias, cabriolets, broughams, and other fall styles. Purchasers will find that very reasonable prices prevail, and can hardly fail to be satisfied.

Wm. H. Gray of 20 and 22 Wooster street has a most complete stock of carriages and harness. All styles of vehicles will be found at prices within the reach of all classes of buyers.

Bradley & Co. of 14 Warren street have a large stock of handsome surreys, buggles, and Bradley & Co. of 12 warren sheet have a large stock of handsome surrers, buggles, and road wagons at very reasonable rates.

Excellent business and express wagons will be found at the Hudson Wagon Company at 542 Hudson street. They are strongly made and sell at manufacturers' prices.

New Haven, Oct. 4 .- Frederick J. Flynn and Robert J. Parks were arrested by the police yesterday afternoon and locked up. They claim to belong to Bridgeport, and are em-ployed by the Consolidated Bailroad in the signal towers. They are accused of tapping signal towers. They are accused of tapping the wires of the Western Union Telegraph Company in Crown street, and thus getting the results of the Morris Park and Jerome Park races before the pool rooms. The loop which runs to Thomas J. Brady's pool room was tapped last Thursday, and the operator in the pool room was unable to get the result of the races. In the mean time, Flynn and Parks were placing money on the results. They, however, made very little money, owing to the imperfect working of the wire. Under section 1.477 of the General Statutes, the accused men are liable to a fine of not more than $200 or imprisonment in jail of not more than one year, or both.

Footballists Come In ! A meeting of the Intercollegiate Football Association was held at the Fifth Avenue Hotel on Saturday night. The delegates present were William Burnett Wright and Capt. McClung, Yale; R. D. Warren and Max Far-McClung, Yale; R. D. Warren and Max Far-rand, Princeton; F. H. Tackaberry and Hall, Wesleyan; Coffin and Frank G. Beattys of the Graduate Advisory Committee, and John Bell, University of Pennsylvania, Capt. Church be-ing absent on account of sickness. The ses-sion lasted four hours, due to a protracted controversy between the University of Penn-sylvania and Yale and then between the Uni-versity of Pennsylvania and Princeton.

versity of Pennsylvania and Princeton.

Mr. Bell came to the meeting instructed to have the match between the University of Pennsylvania and Yale arranged for Oct. 31. The reason stated was that the Pennsyl-vanians were short of funds and that Yale alvanians were short of funds and that Yale always drew a very large crowd. The real reason, however, was very apparent. The University of Pennsylvania has a creak team this year, and if she could only meet Yale early in the season there was a great possibility of beating the New Haven boys. Consequently,
Yale would not play on the date desired, Yale was unwilling to cancel the game. Then, too, Yale will probably play Harvard the first week in November, and two hard games at once would be too much.
When Nov. 14 was settled upon for Yale to meet the Pennsylvanians, Yale positively refused to play. McClung said his team would not go to Philadelphia, because of the treatment Princeton received there last year. Bell became angry and refused to listen further, and the association transacted his business for him.

ment Princeton received there last year. Bell became angry and refused to listen further, and the association transacted his business for him.

Then came the controversy between Princeton and the University of Pennsylvania. Princeton refused to play any match in Philadelphia, and Mr. Bell held out firmly for atternate matches on the home grounds of each college, as has formerly been the practice. Yale then took a hand and also refused to play in Philadelphia. The memory of the rough handling Princeton received there last year was evidently vivid in the imaginations of all the delegates, and they seemed to be desirous of administering a public rebulke to the University of Pennsylvania. Finally, seeing that there was no prospect of a settlement, it was decided by a majority vote that the constitution of the association be amended to the effect that if two colleges disagreed as the date or place of meeting, the question should be left to the association. Whereupon it was decided that the University of Pennsylvania should play all her matches with Yale and Princeton in New York.

Mr. Bell was a very much disgruntled man when he emerged from the meeting room, claiming that a great injustice had been done to his college. To THE SUN reporter he said:

"Pennsylvania entered the League in 1885, and ever since has played alternate games with Yale at New Haven and Philadelphia. At this meeting an amendment was passed by Yale and the other colleges discriminating against the University of Pennsylania."

Mr. Bell intimated that his college might refuse to play in the association and thereby confine themselves to matches with Lahler, Dartmouth, and other smaller institutions. This is evidently just what the other colleges mean to force Pennsylvania to do.

The grounds for the Thanksgiving Day game between Yale and Princeton were not settled upon, but the university of Pennsylvania to do.

Nov. 25. Wesleyan vs. University of Fennsylvania, as New York.

It was learned last night that Mr. Bell had entered a protest against the actions of his associates at the meeting. The matter will now come up before the Graduats Advisory Committee, which meets on Oct. 17. Secretary Warren has been ordered to present a full report of the proceedings of the meeting to the committee.

Another alleged reason for the combined action of Yale, Princeton, and Wesleyan in trying to freeze the University of Fennsylvania out of the association is the institution's method of hiring men to come to the university for the sole purpose of playing on their team. The sum of the whole matter is, that the University of Pennsylvania must withdraw. If she does not, there will be means of compelling her.
